James P. Toler, aged 21, and Mollie Guinagh, aged 21, both of Wheeling.
William Bell, aged 24, and Carrie Bell Young, aged 21, both of Wheeling.

The Island Club Entertained.
Miss Rose Lukens entertained the Island club last evening at her home on North Front street, in a very pleasant manner. About fifteen couples were present and danced to Kilmyer's music. Refreshments were served at midnight. Among those present were Miss Clara Schryver, of Baltimore, and Miss Louise Kinchloe, of Warrenton, Va.

A Car Roof Burned Off.
As the 5:27 P. & O. west bound train bound for this city over the Pittsburgh and Wheeling division was passing Coon Island Wednesday evening, one of the coaches was found to be on fire. The train hands, as they thought, extinguished the flames, but upon reaching West Alexander the car was again seen to be blazing on top. The train was stopped and efforts made to put it out, but before this was accomplished the entire roof was torn off the coach.

Transfers Recorded.
Clark Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:

August 3, by W. R. Donaldson and wife and Charles Ahl, sr., to the Donaldson Carriage Company, for $12,000, lot 84 on the east side of Main street, in the Fifth ward.
June 11, 1890, by Alfred Caldwell, special commissioner, to W. R. Donaldson, Washington Lewis and Charles Ahl, sr., for $3,000, the same lot last above mentioned.

Directors Elected.
The stockholders of the Wheeling Iron and Steel Company, the combination recently formed of the Top, Benwood and Belmont Companies, met yesterday and elected directors, as follows: Earl W. Ogilby, John G. Hoffman, sr., J. D. Dubois, Joseph Bell, C. R. Hubbard, W. F. Stifel, E. H. Hornbrook, Alonzo Loring and George K. Wheat. The directors will meet to-day and elect a president, secretary, etc. It is thought Mr. J. D. Dubois or Mr. George Wise will be the secretary.

To-morrow's Parade.
The committee on the Garfield Assembly's picnic on the State Fair grounds to-morrow last evening completed all arrangements.
The parade will form on Market street at Trades Assembly hall, and move at 9 o'clock down Market to Twentieth street, on Twentieth to Chapline, down Chapline to Twenty-fourth, on Twenty-fourth to Main, north on Main to Fourteenth, on Fourteenth to Market, on Market to Eleventh, on Eleventh to Main and to the new steel bridge, thence by way of South Penn street to the fair ground.

Stolen Buggy Located.
The horse and buggy stolen from Joseph Hoffman at the Beethoven picnic was located yesterday. Two men left it at a Quaker City, O., livery stable. They first wanted to sell it, but the livery stable men questioned them so closely that they finally left it there until they could find a purchaser, as they said. That was the last seen of them. When a postal card giving a description of the rig was sent out, Robert Sweed, a colored hostler at Quaker City, recognized the horse, and word was sent here. Lieutenant Terrill was sent out yesterday, and drove the horse back over the National road, a distance of about forty miles. It was a good drive for Wallie.

Ladies in Camp.
The Washington, Pa., Observer has the following: A party of ladies and gentlemen left Washington on Wednesday morning on the 11:20 B. & O. train for a place about two miles west of Claysville, where they expect to camp and two weeks. Mrs. A. J. Chabers and Mrs. George Linn, of Monongahela City, will chaperone the party. Following are the names of the campers: Misses Nellie Baird, Josephine Gutman, Annie LeMayne, Jane Baird and Messrs. Joe Hamilton, Dr. A. J. Culbertson, Harry Linn, H. T. Stewart, Rush Miller, Russell Munce, J. Paxton and Hal Howarth, all of Washington, and Misses Fanner, of Zanesville, Ohio, Clark, of Cambridge, Ohio, Brownlee, of West Middleton, Abercrombie, of Claysville, and Baird, of Wheeling, W. Va. The camp will be called "Camp Drag," and is the second time the young ladies and gentlemen have camped under this name. Joe Malone has been taken along as cook and Garfield Skinner as waiter.

Pure and Wholesome Quality.
Commends to public approval the California liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs. ## MARSHALL TEACHERS.

Interesting Proceedings of the Fourth Day's Session

OF THE MOUNDSVILLE INSTITUTE.

Some Instructive and Profitable Talks and Discussions on Pertinent Topics. An Increased Attendance Shown Yesterday Afternoon.

The fourth day of the Marshall County Institute was called to order at 9 a. m. After singing, devotional exercises were conducted by L. M. Crow.

Quite a large number of teachers answered to the roll call, notwithstanding it was pouring down rain at the time.

Dr. Shaeffer then gave his morning talk on "Rivers," their sources, channels, velocity, volume, etc.

After a short recess came the usual daily arithmetic recitation, conducted by W. S. Powell.

The institute was then addressed by Prof. Anderson, superintendent of the Wheeling schools, who took up the subject of teaching.

A recess of five minutes was taken, which was followed by a talk by Dr. Schaeffer on school discipline. The teachers received a great deal of useful information from his suggestions.

The institute then adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

The afternoon session opened at 1:30 with the usual large attendance. After singing, the roll was called, showing a slight increase in numbers—sixty-four ladies and sixty-three gentlemen answering to their names. Dr. Schaeffer proceeded to finish his lecture on "Teaching Language," which topic he began Wednesday.

After a short intermission the usual recitation in grammar was led by Prof. D. T. Williams. A great deal of discussion arose over the active and passive voice.

W. S. Powell took up book-keeping, after which the examples were passed around for to-day. The last topic of the day was taken up by Miss Cora Myers, the lesson being on "Crusades." There was to have been a lecture by Dr. E. M. Turner, president of the State University, last night, but for some reason or other he failed to get there, and the institute adjourned until 8:30 a. m. to-day.

There will also be a grand illumination, balloon ascensions and other attractive features. If the weather remains good there will beyond doubt be an unusually large attendance.

The Big Circus.

Sells Bros. "big show of the world," recently returned from a highly successful six months' tour of Australia, is to exhibit in this city on Friday, August 26, and the first of its advance cars is now here with a force of twenty-two advertisers, with General Agent S. H. Barrett in charge.

In the antipodes the show added many rare and curious wild beasts to its fine menagerie, among which the three biggest Bengal tigers ever exhibited are royally conspicuous. The lioness queen also presented her owners with five cubs two weeks ago, the largest number ever known to have been whelped at one time. The circus and hippodrome performances are highly commended as the best of the season.
